Subject: ICM 2006 Plenary Speakers and Invited Section Speakers

Dear Colleague,

We are glad to announce that the list of plenary speakers and invited section speakers of the ICM2006 has been posted at the Congress website <http://www.icm2006.org>.

The Organizing Committee is grateful to them all for having accepted the invitation to speak, and to the Program Committee of the ICM2006, chaired by Professor Noga Alon, for their work.

There will be 169 section lectures, including 3 joint lectures (in Algebra, Number Theory, and Topology). In addition, there will be three panel discussions in Section 19 (Mathematics Education and Popularization of Mathematics), on hot educational issues.

The names of invited speakers and panel members are listed on the Congress website, at the address <http://www.icm2006.org/scientificprogram/sectionlectures/>, within each of the twenty scientific sessions of the Congress.

Information about other activities is available under "Special Activities" as part of the scientific program, and under "Other Activities" as well.
